1. To locate lower inside bracket, measure from center of top body mount hole, forward 11½" to center of bracket hole.

2. Axle brackets are placed 36¼" apart at the center of the shock mount holes. Brackets must be an equal distance from axle ends. Axle housing face must be parallel to the back of rear axle brackets.